THE RESISTANCE OF STONEWARE COATED WITH EMOTIONS.

THE FACTORY THE CORE

Ceramirupe Cerâmicas, founded in 1987, specializes in practical and ornamental stoneware products with high quality standards. Our sustainable production process incorporates a combination of skilled local labor, specialized expertise, and the latest technology. This dynamic approach ensures that our processes are constantly evolving and improving, allowing us to consistently deliver high-quality ceramics to customers worldwide.

OUR TEAM THE ESSENCE

We cherish the human factor, understanding that it's the soul of our accomplishments throughout the years and the catalyst for our promising future. With artisanal production methods at the heart of our operations, we infuse every product with a touch of craftsmanship and authenticity, ensuring that each piece carries a unique character and quality that sets us apart in the global market.

PRIVATE LABEL

In every project, we combine our passion for refinement with meticulous attention to detail throughout the entire creation and production process. We use premium porcelaneous stoneware and blend advanced engineering with traditional handcrafted techniques. This dedication to quality and distinctive details helps create unique products that enhance our customers' brands.

SUSTAINABILITY

At Ceramirupe, we are proud of our commitment to environmental awareness. Our dedication to creating natural and ecological products is unwavering. Our creations are born from inert, non-polluting raw materials with an exceptionally long life cycle. They originate in the depths of the Earth and return to it with minimal processing, thus minimising their environmental footprint compared to other materials.

Through state-of-the-art technology, advanced production facilities and innovative techniques, we prioritise recycling and reuse, whether it's water, unfired clay or damaged items. This conscientious approach ensures that our carbon footprint remains minimal, while preserving the aesthetics, uniqueness and quality of our production.

The Portuguese Way a ceramic interpretation

We can be defined by a blend of nature's influences, rich history, deep emotional connections with our close ones and a lively customs and that shape our essence as a people, filled with unique and authentic expressions of our personality. We are made of an joint of details, with so many differences but harmoniously related.

We have revised these elements into our collections, creating a seamless fusion of nature, almost tangible memories and detailed craftsmanship. From rugged coastlines to delicate floral patterns, memorable places, emotional roots and flavours to aromas, we are daily inspired, almost like a natural breathe, and this is our interpretation of being and felling this way of life.

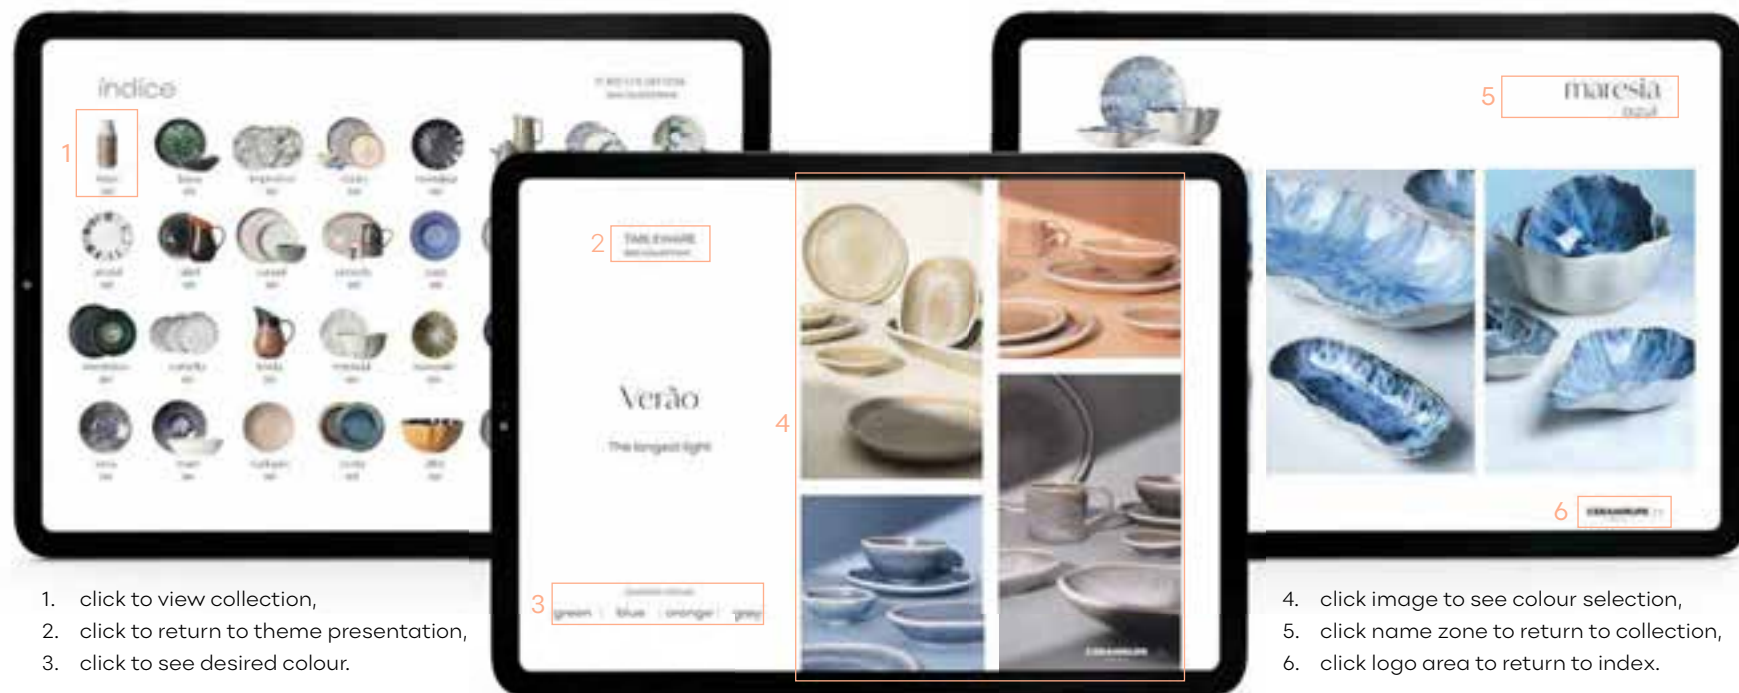

The Portuguese way,
The way that bonds our heart, soul with life.

A collection of ceramic tableware, including bowls, plates, cups, and a pitcher, all featuring a warm, reddish-brown glaze. The items are arranged on a light-colored surface, showcasing various shapes and sizes, from a large oval platter to small cups and a tall pitcher. The glaze has a slightly textured, matte appearance with some variations in tone, giving it a rustic or artisanal feel.

Mosteiros

The cliffs of the Atlantic, harbours of life

available colours:

green | blue

A top-down view of various dark green ceramic items, including plates, bowls, and cups, arranged on a white background. The items have a glossy, slightly textured finish with some visible wear and tear. The central focus is a large, round plate with concentric rings. To its right is a smaller, round plate. Below the central plate is a small, square dish. To the left of the central plate is a small, round cup. In the bottom right corner, there is a large, oval-shaped dish with concentric rings. The overall composition is a flat-lay arrangement of these ceramic pieces.

Lenda

Land of legends

A top-down view of various dark brown ceramic items arranged on a light cream-colored surface. The items include several plates of different sizes, some with concentric rings, and several cups of different shapes. The ceramic has a mottled, aged appearance with some lighter brown and tan spots. The lighting is soft, creating gentle shadows.
